This week in RCIA (January 16) we will consider the Church's moral teachings and look at the 10 commandments. We will explore how the Law of Love replaces mere legalism in our relationships with each other and with Almighty God.

Next week (January 23) we will study the history and development of the Early Christian Church, the spread of Christianity, the major Church Councils, and the development of the faith over the last 2000 years.

As always, all are invited to join us, 6:30 pm Wednesdays. And please pray for us as we continue our Journey in Faith!

Baptism of the Lord

In Today's Liturgy, Jesus experiences a river-baptism, and God's voice is heard proclaiming Jesus to be the Beloved Son of God with the visible presence of the Holy Spirit bearing witness. Do you remember your baptism? Have you ever witnessed someone else's baptism? What do you recall from these baptism liturgies?

In today's scriptures, we do well to listen for echoes of our own baptism and the baptisms we have witnessed: water, Spirit, the Trinity, a faith-filled community gathered.

This Gospel recounts the final event we celebrate in the Christmas season. The Christmas season looks beyond the baby in Bethlehem. Each feast peels back the layers a little further, each revealing the truth of Jesus of Nazareth from a different perspective. Jesus is the one in whom God keeps the promises made through Isaiah. He will show to the world the glory, justice, power and abundant love of God.

And us? Through baptism into Christ, we share in his life in God and in his promise-keeping mission in the world. By our baptism we can lay claim to that divine declaration: "you are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased." Do you celebrate your baptism date anniversary? Today is a fitting time to do so.

Entrance Antiphon (Matthew 3.16-17)

After the Lord was baptized, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

At the parish council meeting on Tuesday, we thought it would be appropriate to have a prayer group for father on his surgery date.

“Everyone is welcome to drop by the chapel between 10 - 1 on Thursday, January 17 to say prayers for Fr Rene on the day of his surgery. If you are unable to make it, please keep him in your thoughts and prayers on this date. Thank you. “
