Pentecost Sunday

Locked doors and locked hearts do not deter the Risen Christ. Literally and figuratively, the apostles were locked behind closed doors. They were locked in the upper room, fearful of the authorities. They were also locked inside their own fear, anger, guilt and grief ... and Jesus broke through it all.

He appeared suddenly in their midst and shared with them the first gifts of the Resurrection: forgiveness and peace. He commissioned them to share the first gifts of the Resurrection: forgiveness and peace. He commissioned them to share those gifts with others. He sent them out, as the Father had sent him.

The peace of the Risen Lord, and all the gifts of his Spirit, would unlock the door of the upper room – and also unlock the disciples' hearts and lives. We see this in Acts, where the peace and joy they have received are communicated to others; Jews and non-Jews, strangers from many countries, people of many languages. The gifts the apostles received were sharable – more than that, contagious – and they were available for everyone. Not just a select few. Everyone.

The apostles spoke a universal language on pentecost: the language on Pentecost: the language of love, peace, forgiveness, hope....the story of God's mighty deeds ... the call to discipleship, to a life of love and self-giving. This call could be heard and understood by everyone: a call into relationship, with Christ and with one another.

Dimanche de la Pentecôte

Right of Christian Initiation for Adults

RCIA is a faith journey, designed for those who are wanting to become Catholic, and for those who are already Baptized Catholic but want Confirmation and Eucharist. As well, RCIA gives existing Catholics who desire to grow in their faith, an opportunity to do so.

Here are some comments from last year's program.

“The Mass Scripture readings come alive after discussions, which are often rich and sometimes even quite profound. The RCIA Program is a treasure that helps us to realize that our Faith is much more than merely going to Mass on Sundays. The RCIA team has spent a lot of time to make us familiar with real faith and love and light and hope”

We are already taking registrations for this fall's startup, as well, we are looking for volunteers to assist with the program. If you or someone you know may be interested in this journey in faith,

Please contact:

Mark and Laurette Perren (587) 201 1712 or the Parish office (780) 826 3010.
