Advent – Week 3

Gaudete Sunday

Joy In the Lord

Today is called Gaudete Sunday because today's Mass begins with the opening antiphon: "Gaudete in Domino semper," i.e., "Rejoice in the Lord always."

To express our joy in the coming of Jesus as our Savior into our hearts and lives, we light the rose candle in the Advent wreath, and the priest may wear rose-colored vestments.

The prophet Isaiah, in today's first reading, encouraged the exiled Jews in Babylon to rejoice because their God will liberate them from slavery and lead them safely to their homeland -- The Refrain in today's Responsorial Psalm, "Lord, come and save us!" In the second reading, James the Apostle encourages the early Christians to rejoice and wait with patience for the imminent second coming of Jesus. Finally, in the first part of the Gospel reading, Jesus encourages John the Baptist while in prison, to rejoice and cast away his wrong expectations about the Messiah. Simply accepting Jesus' healing and preaching ministry as the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecy of Isaiah. In the second part of Gospel, Matthew presents Jesus, the true Messiah, while he gave the highest compliments to John the Baptist as his herald and the last of the prophets. He gave special credit to John's courage in his prophetic convictions and asked his listeners to rejoice in the greatness of his herald.

Life's Messages

1

We need to learn how to survive a Faith crisis: If John the Baptist, even after having had a direct encounter with Jesus, the Messiah, had his doubts about Jesus and his teachings, we, too, can have our crises of Faith. On such occasions, let us remember the truth that all our Christian dogmas are based on our trusting Faith in the Divinity of Jesus who taught them, and on his Divine authority which he gave to his Church to teach what he taught. Hence, it is up to us to learn our Faith in depth and ask the Lord to remove our doubts.

2

We need to open our hearts and let God transform our lives: Today's readings remind us that our lives can also be transformed if we are patient and place our trust in God. The message of Advent is that God is present among us, in our everyday lives. We must prepare our hearts to recognize and welcome him by allowing a metánoia (a change of thinking about God, ourselves, and the world) — wrought by the Holy Spirit, with our cooperative assent, of course — to take place in us during Advent.

3

"Go and tell others what you hear and see." We rejoice at the thought that Jesus is going to be reborn in our lives, deepening in us his gifts of love, mercy, forgiveness and the spirit of humble and sacrificial service during this Christmas season. Hence, let us joyfully share God's bountiful grace, forgiveness, and mercy with others. What Jesus demanded of John's disciples, he demands of us as well: "Go and tell others what you hear and see." This means that we have to share with others our experience of the rebirth of Jesus within us.
