SEPTEMBER 26 & 27 Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada.

Each year, this collection gives Catholics in every parish an opportunity to support the shared mission of the Church in our country.

When I apply the practice of Lectio Divina (the careful repeated reading of Scripture) to today's Gospel, what stands out for me is the first son's response. After initially refusing his father's request, "later he changed his mind and went."

As if to underline the importance of the son's changed stance, Jesus uses the same words to chastise the religious leaders who, even after experiencing the witness of John the Baptist, "did not change(their) minds and believe."

Change is undeniably challenging. It can make us feel resistant, helpless, out of control. But change is essential for growth to happen – in nature, in our attitudes and actions, in our relationships and indeed in our spiritual journey.

The son's change of mind is essentially a conversion. We are all in need of conversion – not just once, but as an ongoing, lifelong process. And the good news is that ours is a God of infinite second chances. No matter what hurtful or guilty baggage may weigh us down, we are continually called by the God of love to newness of life. Today may we pray for the openness and courage to "change our mind" in response to God's invitation.

Krystyna Higgins writes from Guelph, ON

Alleluia. Alleluia. My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia.
